

I requested to be on a no call list. You would think any business in their right mind would know calling me is not a good way to get my business. I can assure you they will not get my business by calling me, actually the reverse will happen.